2024 OREGON DUCKS

TEAM PREVIEW

It's a new era for the Oregon football program — and UO athletics as a whole — as the Ducks embark on their first year as members of the Big Ten Conference. Along with UCLA, USC and Washington, Oregon is now one of 18 schools in the newly-expanded league that expects to be at the forefront of the upcoming college football season.

Also expanding this year is the College Football Playoff, from four teams to 12. The Ducks expect to be in the thick of the conversation for both the Big Ten title and a CFP berth, with the potential for a playoff game in Autzen Stadium another exciting new prospect.

Amid all the change, a constant remains the leadership and culture-building of head coach Dan Lanning, who enters his third season at the helm of the program. After winning 10 games in his debut season, Lanning led the Ducks to a 12-win campaign in 2023 that culminated in a dominant victory in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl.

The Ducks enter 2024 with lofty outside expectations, but remain rooted in the program pillars of connection, toughness, growth and sacrifice. With a bevy of transfers and highly-touted recruits on hand to complement experienced veterans, it will certainly be exciting to see how the 2024 Ducks come together as this new version of college football begins to unfold.

OFFENSE

Oregon's offense has been among the nation's elite through two seasons under Lanning, and offensive coordinator Will Stein took the unit to another level in his first season in 2023. The Ducks led the nation in passing offense (346.9 YPG) while ranking second in both total offense (531.4 YPG) and scoring offense (44.2 PPG), and they were the only team in the nation to score at least 30 points in every game.

It's a new era behind center for Oregon, after two record-setting seasons in which the Ducks were led by Bo Nix, a Heisman Trophy finalist last fall who went on to be a first-round NFL Draft pick. Nix wrapped up his career as the No. 6 passer in major college history with 15,351 yards. Two spots below him in the all-time top 10 is Dillon Gabriel — who joined the Ducks as a transfer this past offseason and will look to cap his collegiate career with a big year for Oregon in 2024. Gabriel provides a wealth of experience to the depth chart, including 49 career starts — 12 fewer than the record 61 that Nix finished his career with last season. A left-handed dual-threat passer, Gabriel has been confounding opposing defenses for the past five seasons and will look to continue that as Oregon competes for a Big Ten title — and potentially much more — during its first season in a new conference.

The transfer portal yielded not only Gabriel for Oregon this offseason, but Dante Moore as well. A five-game starter for UCLA in 2023, Moore is now with the Ducks after seriously considering the UO football program as a high school recruit. Moore has the talent to push Gabriel for reps, and the experience to lead the Ducks in the event his number is called. The Ducks also return redshirt freshman Austin Novosad, who added size and strength during his redshirt season and showed significant development this past spring, when his 177 yards in the Spring Game was tops among all UO quarterbacks.

At running back, the Ducks are looking to replace the production of Bucky Irving, who led the Pac-12 over the last two years combined with 2,238 rushing yards, and who is the only back in UO history with multiple 100-yard rushing efforts in bowl games. A different back was Oregon's second-leading rusher in each of those seasons, and both of those backs are on hand in 2024 to replace Irving's production. Noah Whittington was the primary backup in 2022, and he was averaging an elite 7.3 yards per carry through four games in 2023 before suffering a season-ending injury. Into the void stepped Jordan James, a short-yardage specialist in 2022 who wanted the chance to prove he was much more than just that — and who did so last season, running for 759 total yards and 7.1 yards per carry while matching Irving for the team lead with 11 rushing touchdowns. Oregon added to that group a big-bodied back in Jay Harris, a Division-II All-American last season who rushed for 1,433 yards and 14 touchdowns at Northwest Missouri State.

Oregon will boast some of the most electric players in the country at their positions in the passing game in 2024, led by the returning school single-season record holder for receptions, Tez Johnson. Troy Franklin briefly held that record before sitting out last season's Fiesta Bowl, giving Johnson room to finish the year with 86 catches, for 1,182 yards and 10 touchdowns. The Ducks also return their most productive tight end from 2023, Terrance Ferguson, who caught 42 passes for 414 yards and six touchdowns last fall.

Another tight end, Patrick Herbert, enjoyed a breakout season in 2023, averaging 13.1 yards per reception. And Kenyon Sadiq looks like another potential big-play threat at the position, after getting experience in every game as a freshman last fall. Among the receivers, Traeshon Holden and Gary Bryant Jr. complemented Johnson and Franklin, combining for 67 receptions, 894 yards and 10 touchdowns. The receiver group added to its corps of veteran talent by welcoming via the transfer portal Evan Stewart. The dynamic wideout caught 38 passes for 514 yards and four touchdowns at Texas A&M last season, and he provides another front-line talent to complement the returners.

Oregon's offensive line has made it a regular occurrence to be in the running for the Joe Moore Award as one of the elite blocking units in the country. That trend continued in 2023 when the Ducks were finalists for the award, in what was technically a "rebuilding year" for the group. With a new position coach and three new starters up front last fall, Oregon still led the nation by allowing only five sacks, and helped the offense finish third in the country with 5.91 yards per rush. offensive line will look to continue that level of play in 2024 in the absence of the Rimington Trophy winner as the nation's top center, Jackson Powers-Johnson, along with mainstay Steven Jones.

Two big keys to that effort will be the return of tackle tandem Ajani Cornelius and Josh Conerly Jr., who were new to the lineup last season but now are among the elite bookends in the country. Marcus Harper II also provides a wealth of experience up front, and 2023 breakout player Iapani Laloulu will look to shore up the middle of the line in the absence of Powers-Johnson. The Ducks utilized both the portal and their 2024 recruiting class to enhance the depth on the offensive line. Among the additions is Matthew Bedford, a full-time starter for multiple seasons at Indiana who could push to replace Jones at a guard spot for Oregon this season.

DEFENSE

To complement their electric offense, the Ducks' defense took a dramatic step forward in the second year under Lanning and defensive coordinator Tosh Lupoi. Oregon was one of the most improved defensive units in the nation, ranking ninth in scoring defense (16.5 PPG), 11th in rushing defense (102.57 YPG), 22nd in total defense (318.4 YPG) and 29th in sacks (34). UO was one of just six teams in the nation to give up 10 points or less at least seven times, and its 102.57 rushing yards allowed per game was the fewest by an Oregon team since 1989.

Oregon's defensive front will be challenged to build on the unit's elite production in 2023 while working with a new-look personnel group following the graduation of mainstays Brandon Dorlus, Popo Aumavae, Taki Taimani and Casey Rogers. There are a couple of key veterans returning that the Ducks can build around, in Jordan Burch and Keyon Ware-Hudson, as well as some incredibly talented young players who got their feet wet a year ago in A'Mauri Washington, Terrance Green, My'Keil Gardner and Ashton Porter. Those young Ducks will be looking to step up this preseason camp, but there won't be too much pressure on them after the coaching staff also added some veteran talent through the transfer portal. Jamaree Caldwell brings 20 games of experience from his time at Houston, and Derrick Harmon was a 10-game starter as a sophomore at Michigan State last year.

The 2024 Oregon defense could feature one of the elite inside linebacker tandems in the country. Jeffrey Bassa is the quarterback for the Ducks on that side of the ball, and over the second half of last season his primary partner was Jestin Jacobs. There's also experienced depth from Devon Jackson, Connor Soelle, Jerry Mixon and Bryce Boettcher, who plans to play one more season of football despite being drafted by the MLB's Houston Astros this summer. On the outside, the Ducks will be looking for more from a really encouraging group of young players who made their presence felt in 2023, headlined by the trio of Matayo Uiagalelei, Teitum Tuioti and Blake Purchase. Oregon's highly-touted freshman class also boasts talent in the linebacker room, led by five-star signee Elijah Rushing on the outside.

Oregon's secondary played at an elite level in 2023 despite having to replace multiple starters from a strong 2022 group, and in 2024 the Ducks on the back end of the defense will be looking to do the same. The UO secondary has to replace three starters from last season, and will look to do so through a combination of additions through the portal and development by returners, with the door open for impact from some high-level freshmen. Among the returners will be safety Tysheem Johnson, the top returning tackler on the back end with 70 a year ago, and cornerback Jahlil Florence, who started nine games before being injured late last season. Among the other returning corners, Dontae Manning and Nikko Reed combined for 13 pass breakups in 2023.

The group also includes a couple of the most physically intriguing players in the secondary — Rodrick Pleasant, arguably the fastest player in all of college football, and Khamari Terrell, a converted safety who brings elite length to the corner position. The secondary got an infusion of veteran talent in the spring, upon the arrival of cornerbacks Jabbar Muhammad and Kam Alexander, and safety Kobe Savage. Muhammad is nothing less than one of the elite players at his position in the country, Alexander is coming off an all-conference season and Savage was on the watch list a year ago for the Thorpe Award as the top defensive back in the country. They were joined this summer by another veteran via the portal, nickel Brandon Johnson, a two-time honorable mention all-conference player with 26 career starts under his belt.

Defensive end JORDAN BURCH was a force for the Ducks in 2023 after transferring to the program, leading the team with 7.5 tackles for loss while adding 3.0 sacks.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Gone is all-time leading UO scorer Camden Lewis, but the Ducks still will field a proven kicker in 2024 after the offseason addition of Atticus Sappington. The Portland native made 13-of-14 field-goal attempts a year ago before joining Oregon via the transfer portal; he also was 49-of-50 on PATs and handled kickoffs.

One of the better stories — albeit unheralded — of the 2023 season for Oregon was the performance of punter Ross James. Coming off an inconsistent season at the position, the Ducks opened up the job and brought in freshman Luke Dunne a year ago, but James answered the challenge and averaged a school-record 48.4 yards per attempt. Now the position boasts a proven vet in James and an up-and-coming prospect in Dunne, just the kind of pipeline you hope to create. It's a similar story at long snapper. Luke Basso held down the job in 2023, while Nick Duzansky got some game reps as well as he continues developing.

LINEBACKER JEFFREY BASSA

BASSA LEADS DUCKS INTO NEW ERA

On Sept. 11, 2021, the Oregon football team recorded one of the most significant wins in program history.

The Ducks went into Columbus, Ohio, and pulled out a 35-28 win over No. 3 Ohio State in front of 100,482 fans in Ohio Stadium. One of the biggest crowds ever to watch the Ducks saw one of the biggest games they ever played.

Fast forward to 2024, and crowds of that size are soon to become a regular occurrence as Oregon officially embarks on its first season in the Big Ten Conference.

Eleven total players on the current roster were with the team for that historic win. Among them is inside linebacker Jeffrey Bassa, who goes into his senior season as the unquestioned leader of a team that is widely expected to be in the thick of the conversation for the Big Ten title and the newly expanded College Football Playoff.

A leader on the defense as a junior, Bassa challenged himself to become more of a leader for the entire team going into 2024. Head coach Dan Lanning emphasizes the importance of connection within the program, and Bassa took that to heart throughout the offseason.

"That's something that I really pride myself on and worked on," Bassa said. "How can I take that step with a lot of the seniors that left after last season? That's really something I wanted to work on — speaking up on team runs, getting out of my comfort zone a little bit and really making a point to talk to all of my teammates.

"I think growth for me this season is just consistency. Consistency in tackling, consistency on my blitzes. And also just keeping my voice up day by day, and being a voice not only for the defense but for the team and keeping guys focused."

On the field, he's a different player than he was when the Ducks took down the Buckeyes. At that point, he was playing in just his second collegiate game and was only just beginning to transition from safety — where he was a highly-touted prospect out of Utah — to inside linebacker. He played 16 total snaps in that game, and just two on defense.

Still, Bassa expects that experience to benefit him as he leads the Ducks into their inaugural season in the Big Ten Conference, a league known for its large stadiums and raucous crowds.

"I think it will help out with just knowing what to expect when going into Big Ten stadiums," Bassa said. "Obviously that was a crazy environment, crazy game. So now that I have a feel for that environment, I feel like I've got great confidence going into it."

Bassa has played in 41 career games over three seasons, and has been a mainstay as a starter at inside linebacker since midway through that 2021 season. He has racked up 182 total tackles with 11 tackles for loss, three sacks and three interceptions, and he was a second-team all-conference selection in 2023 while ranking second among Ducks with 72 tackles.

Never one to shy away from sticking his nose in and delivering a big hit, Bassa relishes the opportunity to play in arguably the most physical conference in college football.

"I'm very excited," Bassa said. "That's where the game is headed nowadays, and with me coming back that was really a huge part of that for me is I want to be a part of this conference. I feel like that's the type of game I play — fast, smart and physical."

'Fast, smart and physical' will be traits found throughout the Oregon defense this season, as Lanning and defensive coordinator Tosh Lupoi have loaded up on highly-touted transfers and recruits to pair with veterans like Bassa.

What does Bassa expect the identity of the 2024 Oregon defense to be?

"Relentless and nasty," Bassa said. "I think Coach Lupoi does a great job and with Coach Lanning, that's two great defensive minds coming together. They just have seen it all. Now, it's just them installing that into our mindset and into how we approach every day. I think we have the players in the room to do that. And with me being a leader on the defense, that's my job to let people know this is how we do stuff and this is how we're going to run it."

And what about his inside linebacker room, in particular?

"SAVAGES, STRAIGHT UP SAVAGES. GUYS THAT ARE GOING TO RUN SIDELINE-TO-SIDELINE, GUYS THAT CAN COVER, GUYS THAT CAN BLITZ, WE'RE A GROUP THAT I FEEL IS THE BEST IN THE NATION."
–JEFFREY BASSA

"Savages," Bassa said. "Straight up savages. Guys that are going to run sideline-to-sideline, guys that can cover, guys that can blitz, we're a group that I feel is the best in the nation."

That group will take on an even bigger role in 2024, as coach-to-helmet communication makes its debut in the college game. Bassa is expected to be the regular 'green dot guy,' as they're referred to at the NFL level.

"It's been great so far," Bassa said. "Honestly, it's really nothing new to me communication-wise. I think that's one of the major things of my game is being a great communicator. I think it's the opportunities that the game of college football is translating to. It's a wonderful opportunity for the coach to talk to me directly from the sideline and tell me what to look for."

With Bassa patrolling the middle of the field and full year of experience under Lanning and Lupoi, the Oregon defense took a drastic step forward in 2023. The Ducks were one of the most improved defenses in the nation, ranking ninth in scoring defense (16.5 PPG), 11th in rushing defense (318.4 YPG) and 22nd in total defense (318.4 YPG), and they allowed 10 points or less a staggering seven times.

Improving upon those metrics will be a tall task, as will meeting the incredibly high outside expectations set for this team. But Bassa is ready to take those challenges head on as he leads the Ducks into a new era of Oregon football.

"We know we have the guys in this facility that are going to help us get there," Bassa said. "We know we have the team, we know we have the firepower, we know we have the coaches, so it's just about putting it all together."

HEAD COACH

DAN LANNING

3RD SEASON

Dan Lanning was officially announced as the 35th head coach in Oregon football history on December 11, 2021, as athletic director Rob Mullens brought one of college football's brightest young coaches and top defensive minds to Eugene to lead the Ducks.

"Dan is an outstanding, high-energy football coach who will provide a world-class experience for our football student-athletes," Mullens said. "He is a tremendous recruiter and developer of talent, and we will continue to compete for championships while providing an environment where our football student-athletes can develop to their fullest potential in the classroom, on the football field, and as people. We are grateful for the opportunity to have Dan as the leader of our football program, and we look forward to the positive impact he will have on our student-athletes."

In his first season as the Ducks' head coach, Lanning led Oregon to a 10-3 record and a win over North Carolina in the SDCCU Holiday Bowl. Lanning became the third Oregon head coach to win 10 games in his first season, and the first since Mark Helfrich in 2013.

The Ducks took another step forward under Lanning in 2023, going 12-2 overall with an appearance in the final Pac-12 Championship Game and a win over Liberty in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl. Lanning improved to 22-5 through his first two seasons in Eugene and became just the second Oregon head coach to win each of his first two bowl game appearances.

Lanning's third season in Eugene in 2024 will be one of change and new experiences, as Oregon embarks on its first season as a member of the Big Ten Conference with the goal of earning a spot in the newly expanded 12-team College Football Playoff.

PATH TO EUGENE

Lanning came to Oregon after spending the previous four seasons at Georgia, including the last three as defensive coordinator. He directed the top defense in the nation in his three seasons as defensive coordinator, and helped lead the Bulldogs to the 2022 national championship before taking over full-time as Oregon's new head coach.

A two-time finalist for the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach, Lanning joined Georgia in 2018 as outside linebackers coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator.

A Missouri native, Lanning began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pittsburgh in 2011, and also had stints at Arizona State (2012-13), Sam Houston State (2014), Alabama (2015), and Memphis (2016-17). He made his on-field collegiate coaching debut at Sam Houston State as the defensive backs coach.

As an assistant coach, Lanning has been to and won four of the New Year's Six bowl games, including national titles with both Georgia in 2022 and Alabama in 2015. In four years with Lanning on staff, Georgia also won three SEC Eastern Division titles (2018-19, 2021) and reached back-to-back Allstate Sugar Bowls (2018-19), the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (2020), and the Capital One Orange Bowl (2021, CFP Semifinal).

GOOD TO GREAT (2023)

Following a solid 10-win season in 2022 to begin his Oregon career, Lanning tasked his team with going from "good to great" in year two. The Ducks were once again in the thick of the College Football Playoff conversation, reaching the final Pac-12 Championship Game and closing the year with a win over Liberty in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl to finish 12-2 overall.

The 2023 Ducks were arguably the most complete team in the nation, leading the country in average scoring differential at +27.71 and finishing as one of just three schools in the top 10 nationally for both scoring offense (2nd, 44.2 PPG) and scoring defense (9th, 16.5 PPG). UO also tied for fourth nationally with a plus-11 turnover margin.

Oregon's potent offense was led by quarterback Bo Nix for the second season in a row, as the fifth-year senior put together one of the greatest seasons ever by a UO quarterback. Nix was named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and became the fourth Duck ever to be invited to New York as a Heisman Trophy finalist on the strength of a record-breaking season. Nix set a new NCAA single-season record for completion percentage at 77.45 (364-of-470), and also broke the Oregon single-season records for completions, passing yards (4,508) and passing touchdowns (45).

The dynamic UO offense led the nation in passing offense (346.9 YPG) behind Nix, while also ranking second in total offense (531.4 YPG) and finishing as the only team in the country to score at least 30 points in every game. The Ducks led the nation in fewest sacks allowed with five for the second year in a row, and also led the nation with 26.6 first downs per game.

Nix wasn't the only Duck to make history in 2023, as receiver Troy Franklin shattered UO single-season records for receiving yards (1,383), receiving touchdowns (14) and 100-yard receiving games (8). Fellow receiver Tez Johnson also broke the program record for receptions in a season with 86, and center Jackson Powers-Johnson became the fifth unanimous first-team all-American in program history while winning the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center.

Oregon's electric offense was supported by a vastly improved defensive unit, which took a massive leap forward in Lanning's second season. The Ducks were one of just six teams in the nation to give up more than 10 points no more than eight times, and finished ninth in the country in scoring defense (16.5 PPG) after ranking 74th in 2022.

The UO defense ranked 11th nationally with just 102.57 rushing yards allowed per game, the fewest by an Oregon team since 1989, following a 2022 season in which it ranked 102nd in ground defense. The Ducks also ranked 22nd nationally in total defense (318.4 YPG), an improvement of 49 spots from 2022.

Lanning's 2023 team produced a program-record eight NFL Draft selections, led by Nix with the No. 12 overall pick by the Denver Broncos. Powers-Johnson went in the second round to the Las Vegas Raiders, while the quintet of Franklin (Denver), Khyree Jackson (Minnesota), Brandon Dorlus (Atlanta), Evan Williams (Green Bay) and Bucky Irving (Tampa Bay) all went in a span of 23 picks in the fourth round. Jamal Hill (Houston) was taken in the sixth round to complete Oregon's historic draft.

10-WIN DEBUT (2022)

Lanning had the Ducks in the national conversation throughout his first season as a head coach in 2023, guiding Oregon to 10 wins and a victory in the SDCCU Holiday Bowl.

After a tough loss to his former team and the eventual national champion Georgia Bulldogs to open his Oregon career, Lanning and the Ducks bounced back to win eight consecutive games and were in the thick of the College Football Playoff race. A late-season injury to quarterback Bo Nix loomed large in a pair of tight losses to Washington and Oregon State, but the Ducks finished strong with a comeback win over North Carolina in the Holiday Bowl.

Despite his background in elite defense, the calling card for Lanning's first Oregon team was an electric offense led by Nix. The Ducks were the only team in the nation to rank in the top 20 in both rushing offense (12th, 215.77 YPG) and passing offense (17th, 284.8 YPG) while tying for ninth in scoring offense (38.8 PPG), and boasted the country's top offensive line with just five sacks allowed.

Nix was phenomenal in his first season as a Duck, before announcing he would return to Oregon for a fifth season of college football in 2023. The UO quarterback ranked fifth in the nation with 44 total touchdowns while setting a new UO single-season record for completion percentage at 71.9, second-best in the nation. Nix led all FBS quarterbacks with 14 rushing touchdowns, the second-most ever in a season by an Oregon quarterback.

HEAD COACH

DAN LANNING

Lanning's inaugural Oregon defense was led by a trio of NFL Draft picks in cornerback Christian Gonzalez, defensive end DJ Johnson and linebacker Noah Sewell. Gonzalez led Oregon with four interceptions and went on to be the No. 17 overall pick by the New England Patriots. Johnson led the Ducks in sacks and was a third-round pick by the Carolina Panthers, and Sewell capped a productive three-year Oregon career as a fifth-round pick by the Chicago Bears. The trio made up half of a six-player NFL Draft class in 2023, the most for the Ducks since 2009.

Lanning became the fifth head coach in Oregon history to reach 10 wins in a season, and just the third to do so in his debut season in Eugene.

ELITE DEFENSE

Lanning oversaw the nation's top overall defense in his three seasons as Georgia's defensive coordinator, including a historically dominant unit in 2021 as he helped lead the Bulldogs to their third-ever national championship and first since 1980.

In three seasons with Lanning coordinating the defense, Georgia led the country in combined scoring defense (13.6 points per game) and rushing defense (75.7 yards per game), while also ranking No. 2 in total defense (284.3 yards per game).

Lanning's 2021 Georgia defense led the nation in scoring defense by a wide margin at just 10.2 points per game, 4.6 points per game better than any other team in the country. During 12 regular season contests, Georgia's opponents mustered just 6.9 points per game.

The Bulldogs' defense was especially impressive during the 2021 College Football Playoff, with Lanning's unit fueling the program to the national title. Georgia held Michigan to just 11 points in the CFP semifinal, and then limited an Alabama offense that averaged 41.4 points per game to just 18 points in the national title game.

The 2021 Georgia defense allowed just 16 touchdowns all season under Lanning, five fewer than any other team in the country. The Bulldogs held opponents to 10 points or less nine times in 15 games, and Georgia played 11 full quarters to start the season before surrendering a touchdown. In back-to-back games vs. Vanderbilt and Arkansas, Lanning's unit pitched consecutive shutouts while winning by a combined score of 99-0.

Georgia's historic 2021 season also saw the Bulldogs lead the nation in red-zone defense (62.5 score %), while ranking second in total defense (267.9 YPG), rushing defense (78.87 YPG) and yards allowed per play (4.15), and fourth in sacks (49.0). Georgia also had a stout passing defense, ranking 12th overall at 189.1 yards per game.

Lanning also directed the nation's top scoring defense in 2019 — his first year as defensive coordinator — when the Bulldogs allowed just 12.6 points per game. Georgia led the country in rushing defense (74.6 YPG) and set a school record with an FBS-best two rushing touchdowns allowed, while ranking second nationally in yards allowed per play (4.29) and third in total defense (275.7 YPG).

In a 26-14 win over Baylor in the Allstate Sugar Bowl to cap the 2019 season, Lanning's defense held the Bears scoreless in the first half and allowed just 61 rushing yards and 295 total yards.

Lanning's unit led the nation in rushing defense (72.3 YPG) for the second year in a row in 2020 while ranking 12th in total defense (321.0 YPG) and 16th in scoring defense (20.0 PPG). In a 44-21 win over Tennessee, Georgia allowed an incredible minus-one rushing yards and 214 total yards while recording three forced fumbles and an interception.

The Bulldogs closed out the 2020 season with a thrilling performance in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, with Lanning's defense holding No. 8 Cincinnati scoreless in the fourth quarter as Georgia scored 14 unanswered points to win, 24-21.

In Lanning's first season at Georgia as the outside linebackers coach in 2018, the Bulldogs ranked 13th nationally in total defense (314.3 YPG) and 14th in scoring defense (19.2 PPG).

Lanning was the inside linebackers coach at Memphis in 2016 and 2017, helping lead a defense that ranked in the top five nationally in turnovers gained both years.

RELENTLESS RECRUITER

Lanning is regarded as one of the top recruiters in the country. At the time of his hiring at Oregon, 247Sports listed Lanning as the No. 8 ranked recruiter in the nation.

Oregon's new head coach immediately went to work on the recruiting trail upon arriving in Eugene, signing a 2022 class that 247Sports regarded as the 13th best in the country and best in the Pac-12 entering the season. Lanning's initial UO class included five-star offensive lineman Josh Conerly Jr., as well as 10 four-star recruits.

Lanning continued his recruiting momentum into 2023, landing a consensus top-10 class that was headlined by five-star receiver Jurrion Dickey and five-star edge rusher Matayo Uiagalelei. Lanning also showed a knack for attacking the transfer portal early in his Oregon tenure, landing key contributors like Nix, Gonzalez and running back Bucky Irving for 2022 before signing receiver Tez Johnson, offensive lineman Ajani Cornelius and defensive end Jordan Burch among a flurry of transfer additions for 2023.

Lanning's momentum on the recruiting trail has only gotten stronger as he enters year three, with the Ducks' 2024 recruiting class ranking as the best in the Big Ten and No. 3 in the nation according to 247Sports. Five-star edge rusher Elijah Rushing headlines the class, followed by a whopping 13 four-star prospects. Lanning also continued to make waves in the transfer portal, landing impact players such as quarterback Dillon Gabriel, receiver Evan Stewart, and defensive backs Jabbar Muhammad, Kam Alexander and Kobe Savage, among others.

At Georgia, Lanning was the lead recruiter for linebacker Nakobe Dean, the eventual 2021 Butkus Award winner as the nation's top linebacker and first-team all-American. Dean was 247Sports' No. 2 ranked inside linebacker in the 2019 class and No. 19 player overall.

Lanning played a huge role in Georgia signing defensive end Nolan Smith, the top-ranked overall player in the 2019 class. In three seasons with the Bulldogs, Smith has racked up 81 total tackles, 11.0 tackles for loss, and 6.5 sacks with two forced fumbles and an interception.

According to 247Sports, Lanning has received commitments from five five-star prospects and 14 four-star recruits.

Lanning was the on-campus recruiting coordinator at Arizona State in 2013, helping the Sun Devils land a top-20 signing class. Lanning was also the co-recruiting coordinator during his year at Sam Houston State in 2014.

PLAYING CAREER & PERSONAL

Born in North Kansas City, Missouri, Lanning spent his playing days as a linebacker at William Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri. He earned two Bachelor of Science degrees in physical education and secondary education in 2008.

Lanning began his coaching career at Park Hill South High School in Missouri after earning his degree, spending three seasons as the special teams, defensive backs and wide receivers coach. During that time, he completed coursework for his Master's degree in secondary administration from William Woods University in Fulton, Missouri.

Lanning and his wife, Sauphia, have three sons — Caden, Kniles and Titan.

ASSISTANT COACHES

WILL STEIN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

Second Season | Louisville, 2001

- Hired on December 9, 2022, after spending three seasons at UTSA. Served as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2022 following two seasons as pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach.
- In his first season at Oregon in 2023, directed a dynamic Duck offense that led the nation in passing (346.9 YPG) and ranked second in scoring offense (44.2 PPG) and total offense (531.4 YPG).
- Coached quarterback Bo Nix to a historic 2023 season that culminated in a trip to New York as a Heisman Trophy finalist. Nix set an NCAA single-season record for completion percentage (77.45) while breaking UO single-season records for completions (364), passing yards (4,508) and passing touchdowns (45).
- Also helped Jackson Powers-Johnson win the 2023 Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center, and coached Troy Franklin and Tez Johnson to greatest season ever by an Oregon receiving duo.
- As UTSA's co-offensive coordinator in 2022, helped the Roadrunners rank No. 9 nationally in total offense (486.1 YPG), No. 12 in scoring offense (38.7 PPG) and No. 12 in passing offense (308.6 YPG).
- Started his coaching career at Louisville (2013-14), Texas (2015-17) and Lake Travis High School (2018-19) before joining UTSA in 2020.
- A former quarterback at Louisville, Stein was part of the 2012 team that won the Allstate Sugar Bowl over No. 3 Florida.

TOSH LUPOI

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ LINEBACKERS

Third Season | California, 2005

- In his third season as Oregon's defensive coordinator following three seasons as an NFL defensive line coach with three different teams.
- Led the Oregon defense to a remarkable turnaround in 2023, ranking ninth nationally in scoring defense (16.5 PPG), 11th in rushing defense (102.57 YPG) and 22nd in total defense (318.4 YPG).
- The 2023 Oregon defense was one of just six in the nation to give up at least 10 points no more than eight times. Lupoi's unit produced four NFL Draft picks for the second year in a row, making up half of a historic eight-player draft class for the Ducks.
- Guided a 2022 Oregon defense that ranked 10th nationally in interceptions and produced four NFL Draft picks, headlined by No. 17 overall pick Christian Gonzalez (New England Patriots).
- Coached the defensive line of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2021), Atlanta Falcons (2020) and Cleveland Browns (2019), working with star players such as Myles Garrett and Josh Allen during his time in the NFL.
- Spent five seasons at Alabama prior to going to the NFL, helping the Crimson Tide reach the College Football Playoff every year, including four trips to the national title game. Promoted to defensive coordinator in 2018.
- Got his collegiate coaching career started on the West Coast, working with the defensive line at both California (2008-11) — his alma mater (2000-05) — and Washington (2012-13).

ASSISTANT COACHES

Ra'Shaad Samples

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS

First Season | Houston, 2016

- First year as Oregon's assistant head coach and running backs coach after spending the 2023 season as the wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator at Arizona State.
- Running backs coach for the Los Angeles Rams in 2022, after being hired as the youngest position coach in the NFL.
- Upon being hired by the Rams, Samples was instrumental in the evaluation, draft selection and development of running back Kyren Williams, who went on to make the Pro Bowl in his second season.
- Still just 29 years old at the time of being hired at Oregon, Samples is an FBS assistant head coach for the third time in his career after also holding the title during his stints at TCU and SMU.
- A former receiver, spent 2013 and 2014 at Oklahoma State before transferring to Houston for 2015 and 2016. Joined Houston's staff as an offensive assistant for 2016 and 2017 before going to Texas as an offensive assistant and on-campus recruiting coordinator in 2018.
- While at Texas, worked with current UO tight ends coach Drew Mehringer, who was the Longhorns' receivers coach at the time.

Junior Adams

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ WIDE RECEIVERS

Third Season | Montana State, 2002

- In his third year as Oregon's co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach after spending the previous three seasons as the wide receivers coach at rival Washington.
- Played a major role in coordinating an Oregon offense that led the nation in passing offense (346.9 YPG) in 2023 while ranking second in scoring offense (44.2 PPG) and total offense (531.4 YPG).
- Coached receivers Troy Franklin and Tez Johnson to historic seasons in 2023. Franklin broke UO single-season records for receiving yards (1,383), receiving touchdowns (14) and 100-yard games (8) while Johnson set the single-season record for receptions (86).
- Helped Oregon's offense rank 17th nationally in passing in 2022 while coaching Franklin to 61 catches for 891 yards and nine touchdowns.
- Recruited and coached several future NFL receivers while at Washington, including Puka Nacua, Rome Odunze and Jalen McMillan.
- Arrived at UW after spending two seasons as the offensive coordinator and WR coach at Western Kentucky (2017-18) and three seasons coaching receivers at Boise State (2014-16).
- Helped Eastern Washington to three FCS semifinal appearances over his five seasons with the Eagles (2009-13) and recruited and mentored current NFL superstar and Super Bowl LVI MVP Cooper Kupp.

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHRIS HAMPTON

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ DEFENSIVE BACKS

Second Season | South Carolina, 2007

- Hired as Oregon's co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach on January 25, 2023, after spending the previous two seasons as defensive coordinator at Tulane.
- Will coach Oregon's entire secondary as he enters his second season with the Ducks in 2024.
- In his first season at Oregon, the Ducks boasted one of the nation's most improved defenses while ranking ninth in scoring defense (16.5 PPG), 11th in rushing defense (102.57 YPG) and 22nd in total defense (318.4 YPG).
- Helped guide the Green Wave to a 12-2 overall record in 2022, headlined by a win over USC in the Cotton Bowl, on the strength of a remarkable defensive turnaround. The Green Wave jumped up 82 spots to No. 32 in scoring defense (22.2 PPG) in 2022, and 55 spots up to No. 46 in total defense (360.4 YPG).
- Spent four seasons (2016-19) as Tulane's defensive backs coach before leaving to be the cornerbacks coach at Duke in 2020, after which he returned to Tulane to take over as defensive coordinator.
- Played college football at South Carolina, where he was a four-year letterwinner and a two-year starter at safety.

JOE LORIG

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/NICKELS

Third Season | Western Oregon, 1982

- In his third season as Oregon's special teams coordinator and nickels coach after spending three years coaching special teams and various defensive positions at Penn State.
- Since arriving at Oregon, he helped kicker Camden Lewis become the program's all-time leader in career points scored with 408.
- In 2023, Oregon punter Ross James set the UO single-season record for punting average at 48.4.
- Coached Jordan Stout to Big Ten Punter of the Year and second-team All-America honors in 2021, while punt returner Jahan Dotson averaged a school record 24.6 yards per return to receive third-team all-conference honors.
- Penn State was one of five Power Five schools with a kick and punt return for a TD in 2020 under Lorig.
- Previous two stops came at Utah State (Linebackers/Safeties, 2014-15) and Arizona State (Special Teams/Cornerbacks, 2012-13).
- Also spent time at Central Washington, UTEP and Idaho State after beginning his coaching career at his alma mater Western Oregon, where he lettered for two seasons.

ASSISTANT COACHES

DREW MEHRINGER

Third Season | Rice, 2010

- Third season as Oregon's tight ends coach after bringing 12 seasons of coaching experience at eight different stops across the country.
- In his first two seasons at Oregon, the Ducks' tight ends have combined to produce 23 total touchdowns and 1,363 yards on 125 receptions.
- Since Mehringer's arrival, Terrance Ferguson is tied for fourth among all FBS tight ends with 11 total touchdown receptions and tied for 11th with 74 total receptions.
- Served as interim offensive coordinator during Oregon's win over North Carolina in the SDCCU Holiday Bowl.
- Came to Eugene after spending 2021 as the quarterbacks coach at New Mexico and 2020 as the co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Florida Atlantic.
- Coached wide receivers at Texas from 2017-19, where he was named the Big 12's top recruiter and the No. 3 recruiter nationally by 247Sports in 2019.
- Spent the 2016 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Rutgers where, at age 28, he was the youngest play caller in the Power Five.
- Began his coaching career with stops at Iowa State (2010-11), Ohio State (2012-13) and James Madison (2014).

BRIAN MICHALOWSKI

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Second Season | Arizona State, 2011

- First year as Oregon's inside linebackers coach after spending the 2023 season as a defensive analyst for the Ducks.
- Oregon went 12-2 overall with a win in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl in Michalowski's first season on staff while boasting one of the most improved defenses in the nation.
- Prior to joining Oregon, spent 2022 as a defensive quality control analyst at Oregon State following three seasons as the outside linebackers coach at Colorado (2019-21).
- While at Colorado in 2020, helped Carson Wells earn second-team all-Pac-12 honors while leading the nation in tackles for loss per game (2.67).
- Worked with Oregon head coach Dan Lanning at Georgia as a defensive quality control analyst in 2018 and at Memphis as a graduate assistant in 2016-17. He was also a graduate assistant at Arizona State alongside Lanning in 2012.
- Joined Wyoming as a defensive graduate assistant in 2013 before going overseas to serve as the defensive coordinator for the Cologne Falcons in the German Football League. Then spent 2015 as the defensive coordinator at Garden City Community College before going to Memphis.

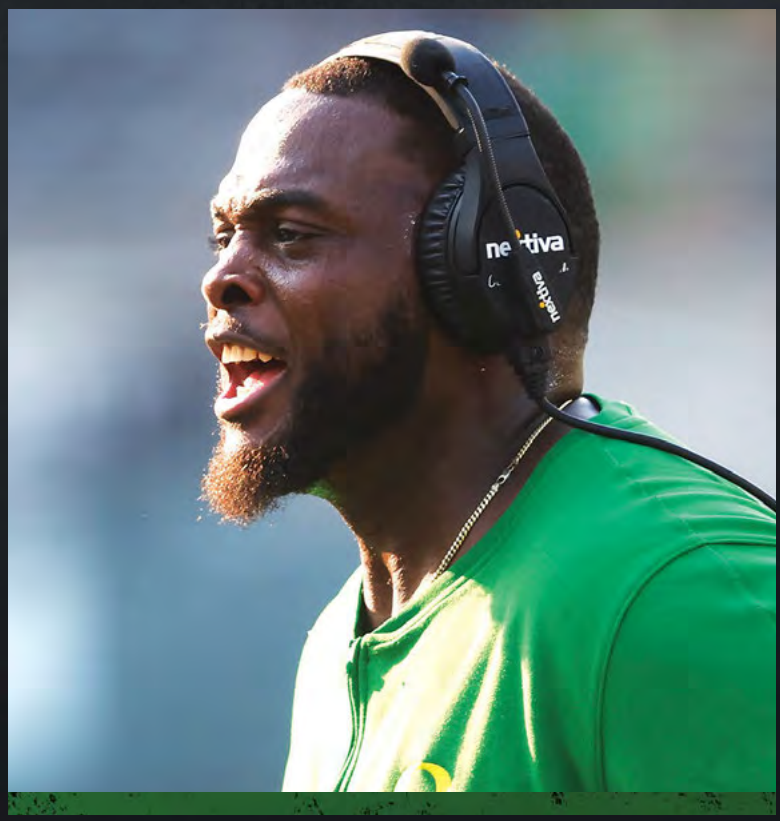
A'LIQUE TERRY

OFFENSIVE LINE

Second Season | Wake Forest, 2018

- The former UO graduate assistant returned to Oregon as the Ducks' offensive line coach on February 14, 2023.
- In his first season as Oregon's offensive line coach in 2023, the Ducks led the nation in fewest sacks allowed (5) while Jackson Powers-Johnson was a unanimous first-team all-American and winner of the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center.
- Spent 2022 as the assistant defensive line coach for the Minnesota Vikings following a year as offensive line coach at Hawai'i in 2021, helping the Vikings to a playoff appearance.
- Worked as a graduate assistant with the offensive line for the Ducks in 2019 and 2020. Helped the Ducks to a 12-2 overall record, a Pac-12 Championship and a Rose Bowl victory in 2019, and a second straight Pac-12 title in 2020.
- Started his coaching career as a quality control coach at Wake Forest in 2018 following four seasons as an offensive lineman for the Deamon Deacons. Terry contributed to a pair of bowl game appearances for Wake Forest – the 2016 Military Bowl and 2017 Belk Bowl.



TONY TUIOTI

DEFENSIVE LINE

Third Season | Hawaii, 2000

- Third season as Oregon's defensive line coach after spending the previous three seasons in the same role at Nebraska.
- Helped the Ducks rank 11th nationally in rushing defense (102.57 YPG) in 2023 as part of a big defensive turnaround from 2022.
- Coached defensive end Brandon Dorlus to all-Pac-12 second-team recognition in 2022 and first-team honors in 2023. Dorlus became a fourth-round draft pick in 2024, after DJ Johnson was a third-round pick in the 2023 NFL Draft.
- Coached two seasons at California prior to going to Nebraska, working with the defensive line and helping the Bears rank in the top 10 nationally in passing defense, interceptions and takeaways in 2018 after coaching inside linebackers in 2017.
- Worked as the director of player personnel at Michigan in 2016 after spending two years in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns as an assistant defensive line coach.
- Spent six seasons on staff at his alma mater, Hawai'i, from 2008-13, working with the defensive line from 2010-11 and linebackers from 2012-13 after initially joining the staff as director of player personnel.

YEAR IN REVIEW

GAME 1 - PORTLAND STATE

SEPT. 2 | #15 OREGON 81, PORTLAND STATE 7

Oregon kicked off year two under coach Dan Lanning with a bang, setting a modern program record for points scored. The Ducks found the end zone in each of their first nine possessions, including all seven in the first half. Bo Nix led the charge, going 23-of-27 for 287 yards and three touchdowns to launch his Heisman campaign. Troy Franklin and Gary Bryant Jr. each hit 100 receiving yards with two touchdowns. The ground game was equally potent as the Ducks racked up 348 total yards on the ground, led by Bucky Irving's 119 yards and two scores on just four carries. Jordan James, Jayden Limar and Dante Dowdell combined to rush 26 times for 192 yards and five touchdowns — three by James. Portland State got on the board on their first possession, but the Oregon defense found its footing and held the visitors scoreless for the rest of the way, limiting the Vikings to just 200 yards of total offense.

GAME 2 - TEXAS TECH

SEPT. 9 | #13 OREGON 38, TEXAS TECH 30

After trailing by double digits entering the fourth quarter, the Ducks outscored the Red Raiders 20-3 in the final quarter as part of a furious comeback effort to secure the win. A touchdown from Bucky Irving and field goal from Camden Lewis after the Ducks' defense forced a turnover on downs gave Oregon the lead, but Texas Tech hit a field goal of its own to take a 30-28 lead with 5:13 left to play. Bo Nix led a 10-play, 64-yard drive that was capped off by Lewis' third field goal of the game with 1:10 on the clock. With the Red Raiders looking to answer back, Brandon Dorlus hit the Red Raider quarterback whose pass went straight into the arms of Jeffrey Bassa for an interception that was returned for a touchdown. Bryan Addison intercepted a desperation pass on a Hail Mary as time expired to clinch the win. Bassa led the defense with nine tackles on the night, while Nix finished 32-of-44 passing for 359 yards and two touchdowns and ran nine times for 46 yards. Troy Franklin caught six passes for 103 yards and a touchdown to lead the UO receiver room.

GAME 3 - HAWAI'I

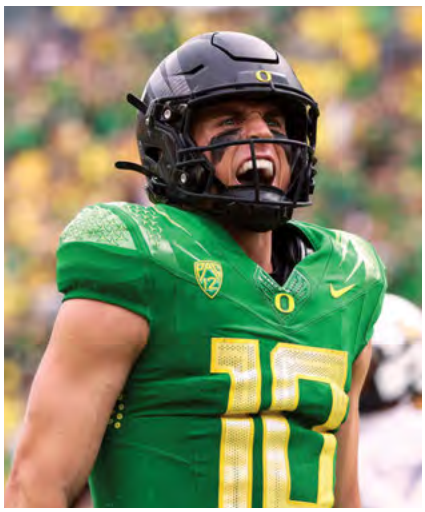
SEPT. 16 | #15 OREGON 55, HAWAI'I 10

Oregon extended its nation-leading nonconference home winning streak to 32 games with a dominant win at Autzen Stadium to improve to 3-0. The Ducks were formidable on both sides of the ball – the offense produced points on its first seven drives, finding the end zone five times, while the defense limited Hawai'i to just 84 total yards and three points in the first half. The Ducks finished with 560 total yards of offense, 232 of which came on the ground. Bucky Irving rushed 12 times for 61 yards and two touchdowns while James Jordan and Noah Whittington combined for 141 yards. Bo Nix went 21-of-27 passing for 247 yards and three touchdowns. Tez Johnson and Traeshon Holden each caught two touchdowns and combined for 140 yards. Tysheem Johnson led the defense with eight tackles and Khyree Jackson tallied his second interception in as many games.

GAME 4 - COLORADO

SEPT. 23 | #10 OREGON 42, #19 COLORADO 6

In a battle of top-25 teams, Oregon stole the show and routed the 19th-ranked Buffaloes to improve to 4-0. The Ducks led 35-0 at halftime, at which point Oregon had more first downs (22) than Colorado had total yards (21), and through three quarters the UO lead was 42-0. Troy Franklin caught eight passes for 126 yards and two scores, and Bucky Irving had 89 rushing yards on 10 carries. Jordan James and Noah Whittington also rushed for scores. Bo Nix completed his first 11 passes to start the game, finishing 28-of-33 for 276 yards and three touchdowns while adding a rushing touchdown. Jordan Burch and Evan Williams both got in on two sacks and Khyree Jackson broke up three passes as the defense held Colorado to 199 total yards, 127 of which came in the fourth quarter. The defense did not allow a point until 2:51 remained in the game.



GAME 5 - STANFORD

SEPT. 30 | #9 OREGON 42, STANFORD 6

Oregon handled business against the Cardinal in dominant fashion despite a slow start, winning 42-6 for the second week in a row. Stanford picked up 97 yards on its first two drives – both of which ended in field goals – and led 6-0 early in the second quarter before the Ducks would kick it into gear. After the first quarter, the Ducks' defense allowed only 125 yards and zero points the rest of the way. Steve Stephens IV led the team with eight tackles while Evan Williams added seven stops and a sack. The offense also found their form as Bo Nix threw for 290 yards and four scores on 27-of-32 passing. Troy Franklin tallied 117 yards and two touchdowns on seven catches, and Terrance Ferguson and Traeshon Holden each added a touchdown. Bucky Irving paced the ground attack, rushing 13 times for 88 yards and a touchdown.

GAME 6 - WASHINGTON

OCT. 14 | #8 OREGON 33, #7 WASHINGTON 36

The Ducks' first loss of the campaign came against Washington in a back-and-forth battle between top-10 teams. After being stopped on fourth down at the 3-yard line, Oregon entered the locker room down 22-18. The UO offense was once again stopped on fourth down inside the 10-yard line in the third, this time finding themselves down 29-18, but the defense forced consecutive three-and-outs. Troy Franklin and Jordan James both found the end zone to give Oregon a 33-29 lead in the fourth. Washington got the ball with 2:11 left and scored just two plays later to regain the lead. Oregon drove into position for a game-tying 43-yard field goal on the final play of regulation, but the kick was no good. Bo Nix finished 33-of-44 passing for 337 yards and two touchdowns, and Franklin had eight receptions for 154 yards and a score. Bucky Irving rushed for 127 yards and a touchdown on 22 carries. Steve Stephens IV led the Ducks with seven tackles, Brandon Dorlus had five stops and a sack, and Jahlil Florence added an interception.

GAME 7 - WASHINGTON STATE

OCT. 21 | #9 OREGON 38, WASHINGTON STATE 24

Oregon bounced back from its first loss of the season in resounding fashion with a strong win over Washington State. The Ducks entered the second quarter tied 3-3, but short rushing touchdowns by Bucky Irving and Bo Nix gave Oregon a 17-13 lead at the half. Irving scored twice in the third quarter, once on the ground and once through the air, to pull away from the Cougars, and Tez Johnson's fourth quarter touchdown catch put the game safely out of reach. The ground game proved to be the key to the win as the Ducks rushed for 248 total yards. Irving led the way with 132 yards on 15 carries and three total touchdowns and Jordan James added 103 yards on 13 touches. Nix, in his record-breaking 54th collegiate start, threw for 293 yards and two scores on 18-of-25 passing and Tez Johnson racked up 94 yards and one touchdown. Evan Williams led the UO defense with 14 tackles, Jeffrey Bassa added eight, and Jestin Jacobs finished with six stops, including one of Oregon's six sacks, in his season debut.

GAME 8 - UTAH

OCT. 28 | #8 OREGON 35, #13 UTAH 6

Defense shined as the Ducks earned their second top-20 win of the season in Salt Lake City, securing the 700th victory in program history. The offense got things started early as the Ducks jumped out to a 14-3 lead in the first quarter, and a stellar defensive effort did not allow Utah to pick up any kind of momentum. Jahlil Florence led UO defenders with eight tackles, Tysheem Johnson picked off two passes, and Khyree Jackson and Keyon Ware-Hudson each added a sack as the defense held the two-time Pac-12 champs to just 241 total yards and no touchdowns. Utah would not get on the scoreboard in the second half as Oregon held the Utes to their fewest points in the series since 1968. Bo Nix threw for 248 yards and finished the game 24-of-31 passing, opening the scoring with a rushing touchdown from a yard out before finding both James Jordan and Troy Franklin in the end zone. Bucky Irving tallied 14 carries for 83 yards and a touchdown.

YEAR IN REVIEW

GAME 9 - CALIFORNIA

NOV. 4 | #6 OREGON 63, CALIFORNIA 19

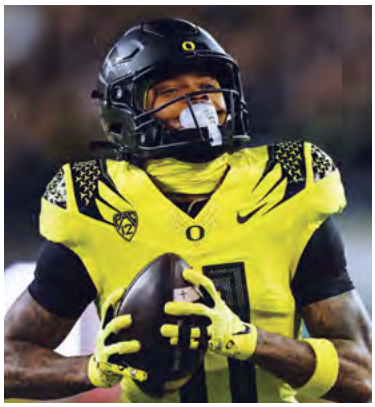
Oregon improved to 8-1 on the season and 5-1 in conference play with a commanding 63-19 victory over Cal. From the opening whistle, Oregon's offense was in top gear as Bo Nix delivered a masterful performance. Nix threw for 386 yards and four touchdowns on 29-of-38 passing, spreading the ball effectively across the field. Nix also ran the ball into the end zone twice, totaling six touchdowns on the day. Tez Johnson brought down 12 catches, tallying 180 yards and two touchdowns.

Bucky Irving rushed for 89 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries while Jordan James added a touchdown of his own. The Ducks' defense gave Cal fits all afternoon, stifling rushes at the line and breaking up multiple passes. Evan Williams led the team with eight tackles, Casey Rogers added a sack – one of four TFLs on the day – and Steve Stephens IV intercepted his second pass of the year.

GAME 10 - SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

NOV. 11 | #6 OREGON 36, USC 27

Big plays were the key to victory as the Ducks firmly supplanted themselves in both the Pac-12 Championship and College Football Playoff conversation. Bo Nix's first pass of the game was a 77-yard touchdown to Tez Johnson, and his next pass went 84 yards to Troy Franklin who took it to the house. Johnson brought in another touchdown pass, this one from 21 yards out, to extend the Oregon lead to 29-14 midway through the third quarter. The UO defense sacked reigning Heisman Trophy winner Caleb Williams three times, not allowing Williams to get in any sort of groove most of the night. Evan Williams led the team with nine tackles and a sack and forced and recovered a fumble which set up the final Oregon touch-down of the night, a 19-yard run from Bucky Irving. The Trojans scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to nine, but Oregon recovered an onside kick with 3:44 left on the clock and ran it out. Nix finished 23-of-31 passing for 412 yards and four touchdowns in a battle between two of the nation's top quarterbacks. Franklin and Johnson combined for 273 receiving yards on the night while Irving rushed 19 times for 118 yards.



GAME 11 - ARIZONA STATE

NOV. 18 | #6 OREGON 49, ARIZONA STATE 13

Multiple program records were smashed in the Ducks' dominant victory over the Sun Devils. Kicker Camden Lewis became Oregon's all-time leading scorer after nailing all seven extra point attempts, while Troy Franklin set single-season records for receiving yards, touchdowns, and 100-yard games. Bo Nix's six touchdown passes – all of which came in the first half – tied the single-game record. The first two were to tight end Patrick Herbert, the next two were to Franklin, and the last two were to Gary Bryant Jr. and Tez Johnson. Nix finished 24-of-29 passing for 404 yards and six scores while Franklin caught eight passes for 128 yards and two touchdowns. The defense was stout, pitching a first half shutout, and rotated liberally throughout the game. The Ducks shut out Arizona State in the first half, the fourth time this season that they had pitched a scoreless half and held an opponent to 13 or fewer points for the sixth time in 11 games.

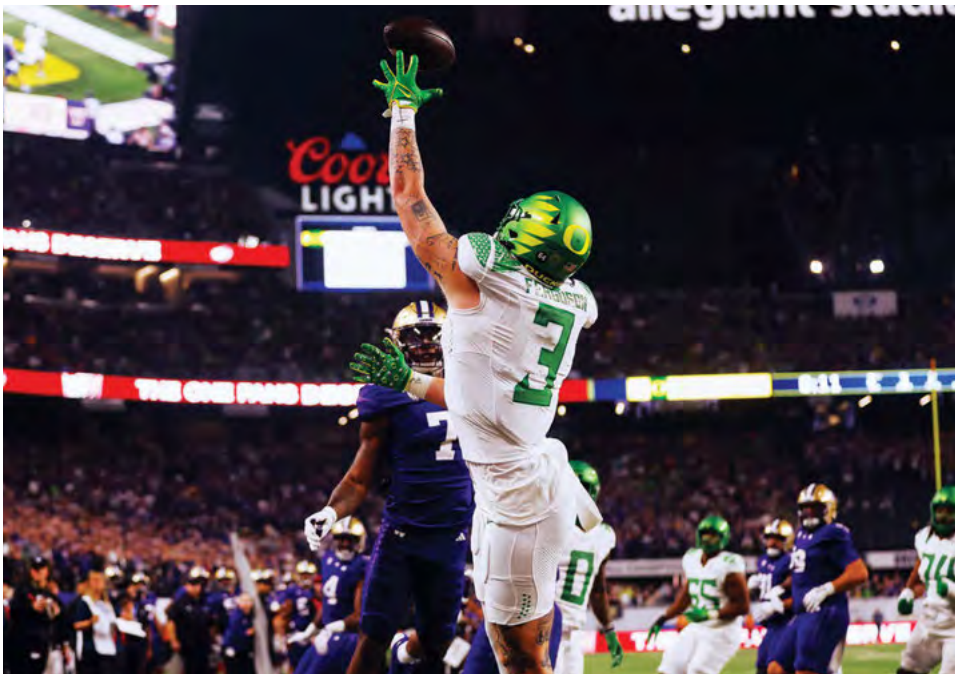
GAME 12 - OREGON STATE

NOV. 24 | #6 OREGON 31, #16 OREGON STATE 7

Oregon secured its fourth 11-win regular season in program history and clinched a spot in the Pac-12 Championship Game with an end-to-end victory over the Beavers on senior night. Bo Nix burnished his credentials for the Heisman Trophy by going 33-of-40 for 367 yards and two touchdowns, plus a rushing touchdown, helping Oregon to its sixth straight win. Oregon State's only touchdown came just before the half, but with just 8 seconds left on the clock, Nix found Troy Franklin on a no-look pass that went 41 yards for his program-record 25th career receiving touchdown. Franklin finished with nine catches for 128 yards and the touchdown, and Tez Johnson added 11 receptions for 137 yards. Bucky Irving caught the other touchdown pass from Nix while Jordan James added a rushing touchdown. Evan Williams had six tackles to lead a UO defense that held Oregon State's potent rushing attack to just 53 yards on 24 carries. The Ducks held OSU to just 2-of-6 on fourth down. The Ducks had one sack in the game, by edge rusher Matayo Uiagalelei — against his brother, OSU quarterback DJ Uiagalelei.

PAC-12 CHAMPIONSHIP - WASHINGTON

DEC. 1 | #5 OREGON 31, #3 WASHINGTON 34



Oregon suffered its second three-point loss to Washington on the season in crushing fashion in the Pac-12 Championship Game. Washington jumped out to a 20-3 lead late in the second half after the Ducks came out of the gates slow. With under two minutes left in the first half, an acrobatic catch by Terrance Ferguson went for the Ducks' first touchdown of the night. After receiving the second half kickoff, Oregon converted twice on fourth down on the ensuing drive, the second resulting in another Ferguson touchdown. After an interception and a fourth down stop, Jordan James ran in the go-ahead touchdown late in the third quarter, but Washington responded with two more of their own to take a 34-24 lead. Nix found Traeshon Holden for a 63-yard touchdown with 2:14 left in the fourth, but the Huskies recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock. Nix finished 21-of-34 passing for 239 yards and three touchdowns and led the Ducks on the ground with 69 rushing yards. Tez Johnson caught five passes for 68 yards. Steve Stephens IV and Jeffrey Bassa both put up double-digit tackles to lead UO defensively.

VRBO FIESTA BOWL - LIBERTY

JAN. 1 | #8 OREGON 45, #23 LIBERTY 6

Oregon rolled over Liberty in the Fiesta Bowl to secure the sixth 12-win season in program history. Bo Nix threw for 363 yards and five touchdowns to cap one of the most prolific seasons by an Oregon quarterback ever, breaking multiple records set by Marcus Mariota during his Heisman campaign and finishing the season with a completion percentage of 77.45 – an NCAA record. The Ducks' defense allowed only 164 yards in the final three quarters after Liberty came out of the gates strong, holding the Flames' rushing attack, which led the FBS with 302.9 yards per game, to a season-low 168. The offense put up 584 total yards, the third-most in UO bowl history. Nix threw touchdown passes to Gary Bryant Jr., Terrance Ferguson, and Kenyon Sadiq to break the program's single-season passing touchdown record before finding Traeshon Holden in the second quarter to give the Ducks a 31-6 lead at the break. Nix's final touchdown pass, a 24-yarder to Tez Johnson, broke the UO single-season passing yardage record. Johnson caught 11 passes for 172 on the day, setting the UO single-season reception record with 86 catches. Bucky Irving rushed for 117 yards and one score in his final game as a Duck. Jeffrey Bassa led the defensive effort with nine tackles and one tackle for loss, earning Defensive MVP honors while Nix was named the Offensive MVP.

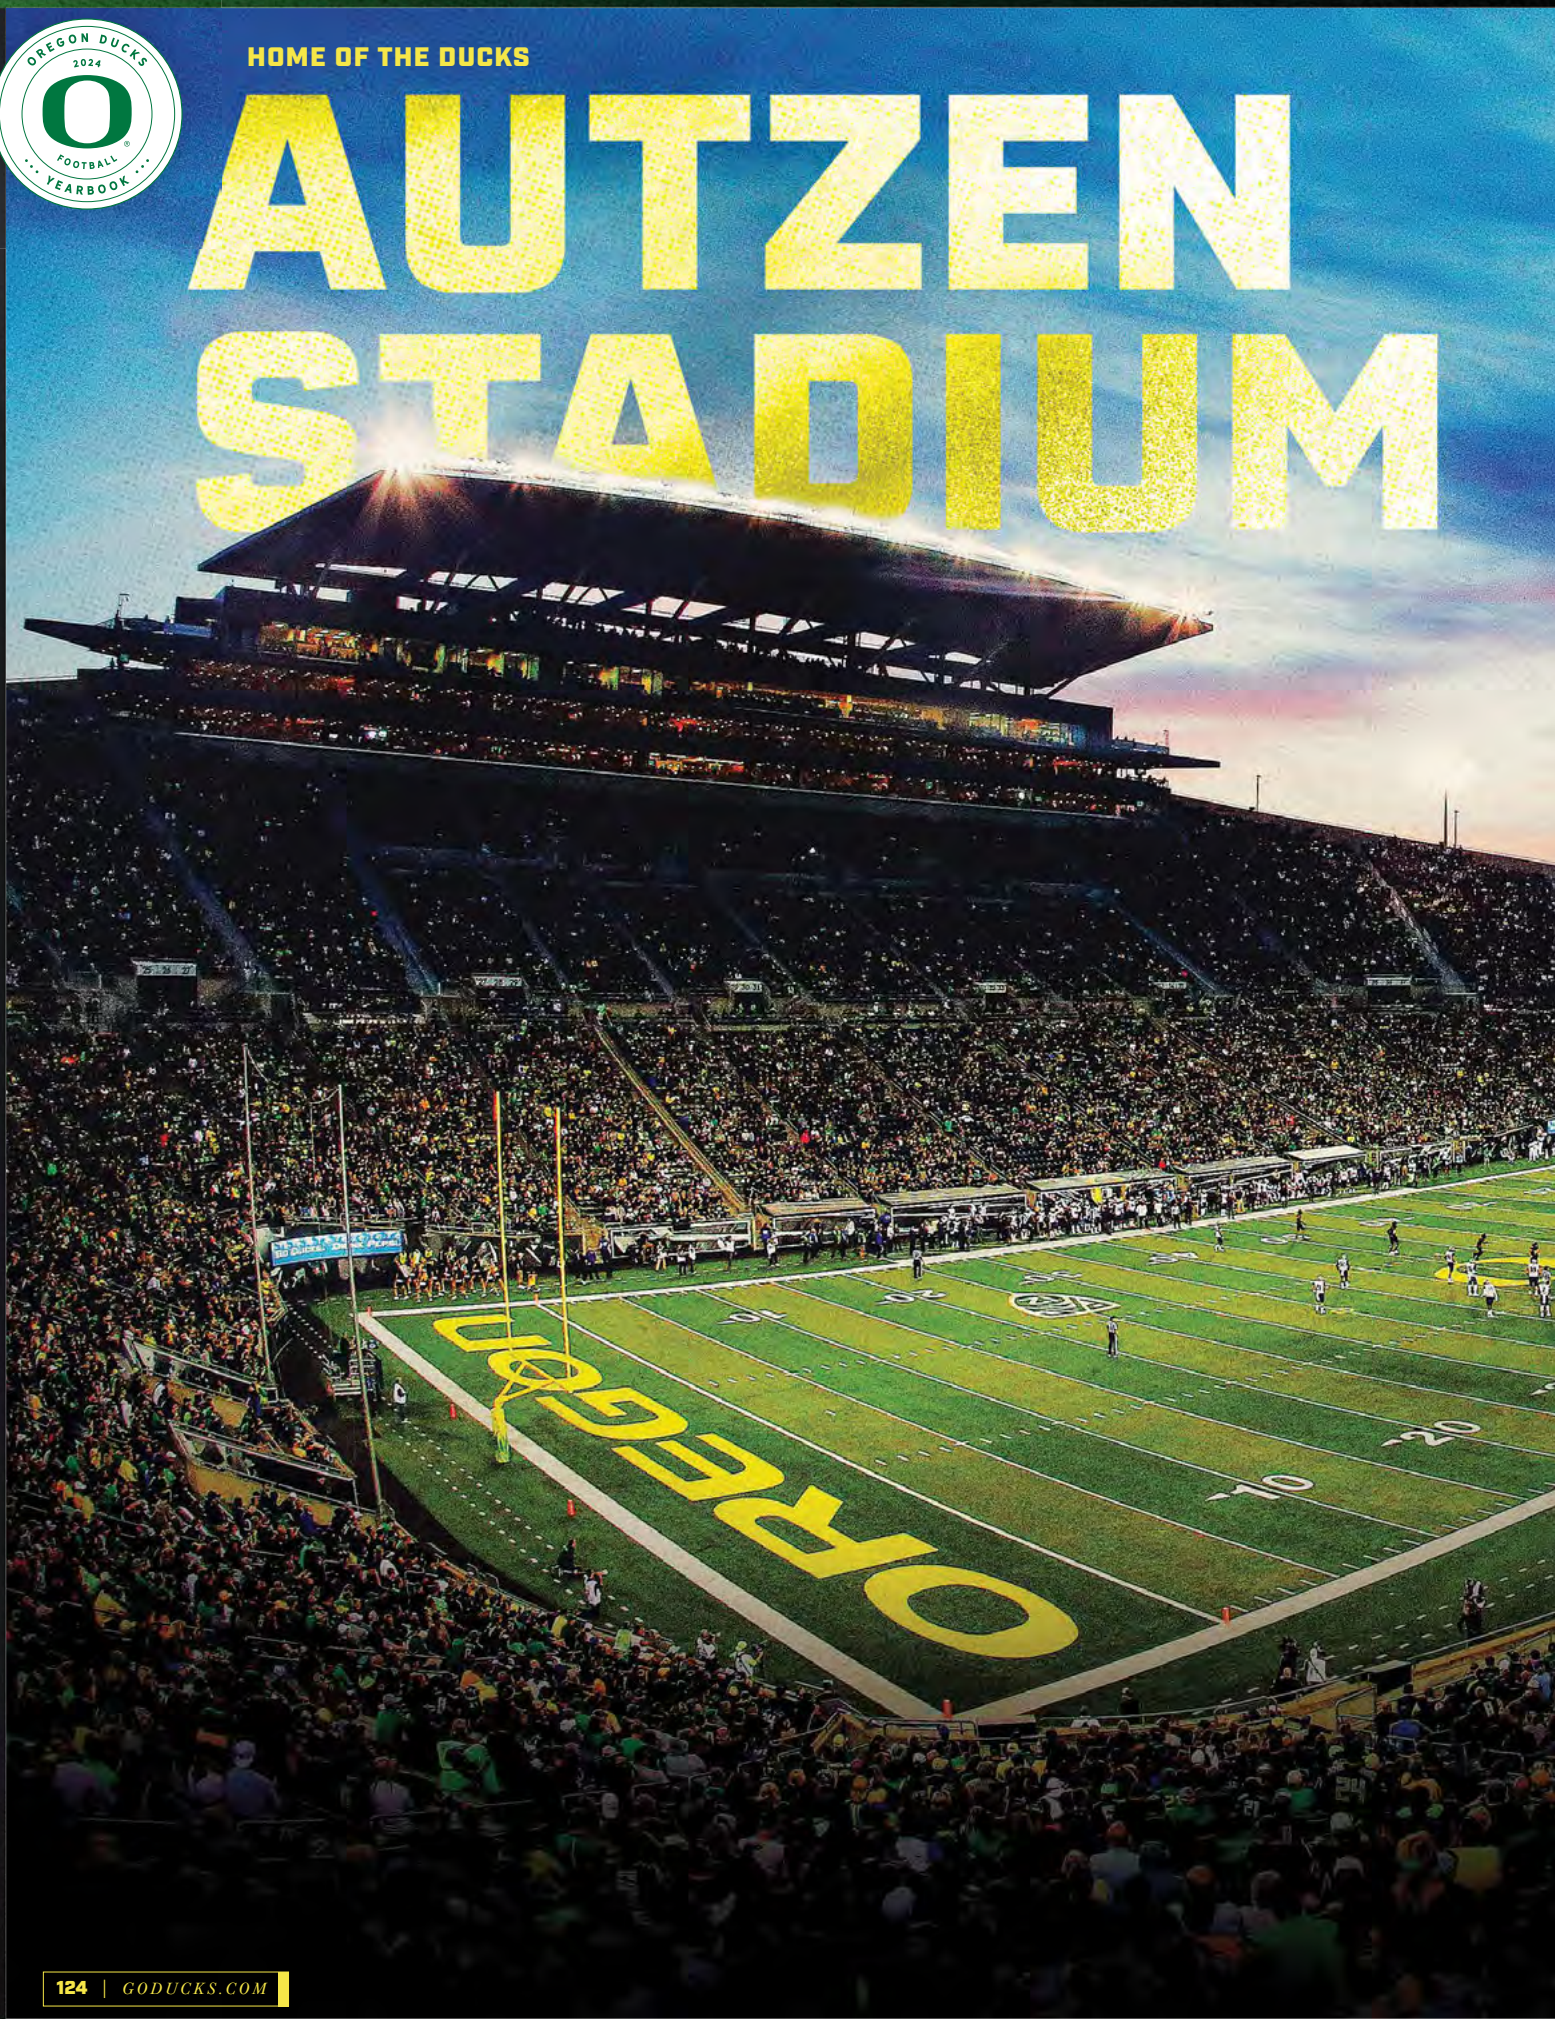
HOME OF THE DUCKS

AUTZEN STADIUM



HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

One of the loudest stadiums in college football, Oregon's Autzen Stadium provides a unique setting that has hosted more than 10 million football fans over the course of the last 55 seasons.

Consistently ranked among the nation's top 10 stadiums to watch a college football game, the stadium — named in honor of former Portland lumberman and philanthropist Thomas J. Autzen — provides a distinct atmosphere unlike any other collegiate facility in the country by accentuating the unique characteristics of the Pacific Northwest with an upgraded fan-friendly functionality.

232 Oregon owns an all-time record of 232-101-5 at Autzen Stadium, which includes a 135-85-2 mark in conference play.

135 Since Autzen Stadium expanded prior to the 2002 season, Oregon has had at least 50,000 fans for 135 of 141 home games (not incl. 2020).

131 The Ducks have a record of 131-24 (.845) at Autzen Stadium since 2000.

52 Oregon has scored 50 or more points 52 times in Autzen Stadium, including 34 percent (31-of-91) of home games since 2010.

44 UO was ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for 44 consecutive home games from 2009-15. Oregon's top ranking for a home game in 2023 was No. 6 (three times).

32 The Ducks have won 32 consecutive home nonconference games entering 2023, the second-longest active streak in the nation.

30 Oregon has posted a .500 record or better at Autzen Stadium in 30 consecutive seasons entering 2024.

13 UO has gone undefeated at home in conference play 13 times in Autzen Stadium, including three straight years from 2019-21.

11 The Ducks have gone undefeated at home 11 times – 1990, '98, '99, 2000, '09, '10, '13, '19, '20, '21 and '23 – and have won nine conference championships since calling Autzen home – 1994, 2000, '01, '09, '10, '11, '14, '19 and '20.

SLOCUM ORTHOPEDICS

A LEGACY OF EXCELLENCE

For more than half a century Slocum Orthopedics has been the trusted orthopedic partner of University of Oregon Athletics, providing world-class medical care to generations of Duck athletes. This long-standing relationship is built on a shared commitment to excellence, innovation, and teamwork — values that have defined Slocum's approach to patient care since its founding by Dr. Donald Slocum in 1939.

The roots of Slocum's partnership with Oregon Athletics can be traced back to the groundbreaking work of Dr. Slocum and his collaborations with legendary track coach Bill Bowerman. Together, they developed revolutionary training techniques and treatments that transformed the field of sports medicine. This spirit of innovation laid the foundation for Slocum's sideline doctor program, which has become an integral part of the practice's relationship with the University of Oregon.

Over the decades, Slocum's sideline doctors have played a crucial role in supporting the health and success of Oregon's student-athletes. From Dr. Donald Jones, who served as the team orthopedist for nearly 40 years, to the current trio of Dr. Lyle Jackson, Dr. Jeffrey Tuman, and Dr. Rudolf Hoellrich, these dedicated physicians have been trusted allies and advocates for generations of Duck athletes.

Dr. Jones, who retired in 2018, witnessed firsthand the incredible growth and success of Oregon Athletics during his tenure. From the Independence Bowl in 1989 to the College Football Playoff in 2014, Dr. Jones was there every step of the way, providing expert care and guidance to countless athletes. His legacy of compassion, integrity, and unwavering commitment to player well-being set the standard for Slocum's sideline doctor program and continues to inspire the practice's approach to sports medicine.

Today, Dr. Jackson, Dr. Tuman, and Dr. Hoellrich carry on this proud tradition, bringing their unique skills and experiences to bear in service of Oregon's student-athletes. As Oregonians with deep ties to the community, they understand the importance of the University of Oregon to the state and the role that athletics plays in bringing people together.

What sets Slocum's sideline doctors apart is their team-oriented approach to care. By collaborating closely with coaches, trainers, sports psychologists, and other specialists, they provide comprehensive, personalized treatment plans that address each athlete's unique needs and goals. This holistic approach ensures that Oregon's student-athletes receive the highest level of care, both on and off the field.

"For us, there has been no greater reward than contributing to such an extraordinary athletic program alongside this talented group of athletes and professionals."

– DR. RUDOLF HOELLRICH

Dr. Lyle Jackson, who joined Slocum after a career as a mechanical engineer, brings a unique perspective to his role as a sideline doctor. He draws on his background in problem-solving and his passion for teamwork to help athletes overcome challenges and achieve their goals. "The crux of it is knowing what the individual wants to achieve out of their problems," Dr. Jackson says, "and hopefully being able to tailor their treatment [to] their expectations and what the goal is."

The impact of Slocum's partnership with Oregon Athletics extends far beyond the treatment of injuries. Through their work, Slocum's sideline doctors have helped to foster a culture of resilience, perseverance, and excellence that has become synonymous with the University of Oregon. They have been there to celebrate the triumphs and console in the face of setbacks, serving as partners for generations of Duck athletes.

As Dr. Hoellrich reflects, "For us, there has been no greater reward than contributing to such an extraordinary athletic program alongside this talented group of athletes and professionals."

Looking to the future, Slocum remains deeply committed to its partnership with Oregon Athletics. As the university joins the Big Ten Conference, Slocum's sideline doctors stand ready to support the next generation of Duck athletes as they take on new challenges and pursue new opportunities.

Through countless changes and milestones, Slocum has been a constant presence in Oregon Athletics, providing unwavering support and expert care to the university's student-athletes. From the early days of Dr. Slocum's pioneering work to the cutting-edge treatments and techniques of today, Slocum has been at the forefront of sports medicine, helping to set the standard for orthopedic care in the Pacific Northwest and beyond.

JUSTIN HERBERT

BY THE NUMBERS

4 The Ducks have a program-best four bowl wins in the Rose Bowl (1917, 2012, 2015 and 2020). Oregon's three Rose Bowl wins in the last decade tied Wisconsin for the most for any school.

2 Oregon was one of nine Power 5 programs and the only school in the Pac-12 to have won a bowl game in the 2018 and 2019 seasons.

2020 —OREGON 28, WISCONSIN 27

2018 —OREGON 7, MICHIGAN STATE 6

23 Oregon has played in 23 bowl games since 2000, and has picked up more than half (10) of its 17 bowl wins during that span. Since 2007, Oregon is 10-7 in bowl games with four Rose Bowl appearances and two trips to the national championship game.
